OPC is on the Radio! New Podcast to Cover Pressing Local & National Utility & Energy News

Washington, DC –On Monday, March 9, 2020 the Office of the People’s Counsel for the District of Columbia is launching “OPC Radio Connect,” a podcast hosted by People’s Counsel Sandra Mattavous-Frye. Through a partnership with DC Radio, a channel of the Office of Cable Television, Film, Music and Entertainment, OPC Radio Connect will feature information on a variety of utility and energy-related issues such as climate change, careers in energy and utility scams. The podcast also will delve into how OPC serves DC utility consumers.

OPC Radio Connect will air Monday – Friday mornings from 7:00 – 7:30 AM on DC Radio 96.3 HD4 (WHUR’s HD frequency), on DCRADIO.GOV, DC Radio on iPhone and Android apps, Tunein.com, and on Google and Alexa. The program is available “on-demand” on various podcast apps such as Apple, SoundCloud and Spotify.

“OPC Radio Connect is a creative extension of OPC’s outreach to consumers that will inform them of the latest news and trends affecting their utilities,” said People’s Counsel Mattavous-Frye.

“We welcome OPC Radio Connect to the DC Radio lineup and look forward to timely topics about the utility and energy world,” said DC Radio General Manager Maxx Myrick.

People’s Counsel Mattavous-Frye will lead lively discussions with national figures, local experts and OPC’s knowledgeable staff.
